HOW IS PROFESSIONAL TRAINING PROGRAM AT OPUS BALLET ORGANIZED

The professional training program has a duration of three years (2 years training in the department of modern/contemporary and 1 year of specialization in contemporary dance – R.O.S. Research Open Space) with highly specialized teachers who are able to guide each student according to his/her individual abilities and talents. Classes are scheduled so that students may attend school or the university, depending on their age.

PROGRAM

• DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICAL BALLET

Classical Ballet technique, Floor Barre, Pointe, Pas de deux and classical repertory, Graham technique, Men's classes, Contemporary and Modern technique classes.

- EXAMS: Exams are held every winter.

• DEPARTMENT OF MODERN/CONTEMPORARY

Classical Ballet technique, Floor Barre, Modern, Modern Jazz, Contemporary, choreographic workshops and improvisation.

- EXAMS: Exams are held twice a year: in winter (February) and summer (June).
- DIPLOMA: A certificate of attendance is issued to each student and a final diploma is issued at the end of the three-year program.

OTHER ACTIVITIES: During the three-year program the students also achieve a higher didactical and technical level through the many performing opportunities and events that are organized. Students have the possibility to choreograph, compose and create their own works and performances. They are also given help preparing for auditions and competitions.

To further advance their level of technique and exposure, the training program also offers students the chance to study with numerous international teachers and choreographers. These include GUEST ARTISTS who work regularly with the OPUS BALLET CENTER such as: Loris Petrillo (Compagnia Petrillo Dance - Italy), Peter Mika (Company CobosMika - Spain), Gustavo De Oliveira (Compagnia Portuguesa de Bailando Contemporaneo), Philippe Talard (Grand Theatre de la Ville de Luxembourg), Tamas Moricz (Associated Artistic director of the Ballet Vlaanderen, dancer Forsythe Company), David Liu (teacher of Hon Kong Academy for the Performing and teacher of Gaga technique), Johannes Hartl (Iwanson International school of Contemporary Dance), Thierry Verger (Artistic Director of the Modal Underground Company), Anthony Missen (Associated Artistic director of the Company Chameleon), Emanuel Gat (Coreographer for the Paris Opera Ballet, Sydney Dance Company, Tanztheater Bremen, Le Ballet du Grand Theatre de Geneve, Ballet de Marseille, The Royal Swedish Ballet, Polish National Ballet), Jean Emile (Dancer of the Netherlands Dance Theater), and other personality from Netherlands Dance Theater, from Scapino Ballet Rotterdam and other INVITED GUESTS of international fame who will teach works by Kylian and Forsythe.
